Springtime in Provence
Burgundy · Beaujolais
Cruising the Rhône and Saône Rivers aboard the Deluxe Small River Ship AMADEUS PROVENCE
May 15 to 23, 2019

Tufts UNIVERSITY Travel-Learn
Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends of Tufts,
Along with alumni from Columbia, Georgetown, Mt. Holyoke and Ohio State on this departure, we welcome all alumni, friends and family on this nine-day French sojourn. Visit Provence and the wine regions of Burgundy and Beaujolais en printemps (in springtime), a radiant time of year, when woodland hillsides are awash with the delicately tinted hues of an impressionist’s palette and the region’s famous flora is vibrant throughout the enchanting French countryside. Cruise for seven nights from Provençal Arles to historic Lyon along the fabled Rivers Rhône and aboard the deluxe AMADEUS PROVENCE.

During your intimate small ship cruise, dock in the heart of each port town and visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites, including the Roman city of Orange, the medieval papal palace of Avignon and the wonderfully preserved Roman amphitheater in Arles. Tour the 15th-century Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune, famous for its intricate and colorful tiled roof, and picturesque Lyon, France’s gastronomique gateway. Enjoy an excursion to the Beaujolais vineyards for a private tour, world-class piano concert and wine tasting at the Château Montmelas, guided by the châtelaine, and visit the Burgundy region for an exclusive tour of Château de Rully, a medieval fortress that has belonged to the family of your guide, Court de Ternay, since the 12th century.

A perennial favorite, this exclusive travel program is the quintessential Provençal experience and an excellent value featuring a comprehensive itinerary through the south of France in full bloom with springtime splendor. I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available.

To make a reservation, call our Tufts representative at Cohagan & Company at 1-800-922-3088.

Cheers!

“A Toutes Les Gloires De La France”

The inscription “A Toutes les Gloires de la France,” engraved on the façade of the royal Palace of Versailles, celebrates France’s extraordinary cultural contributions and outstanding artistic, scientific and political minds. In the Provence du printemps (of springtime), these glories are gracefully steeped into the scenery. The inherent artistry woven into France’s pastoral spring—the effervescent bloom of mid-May and the French spirit—transforms each object into one of beauty. Here, abundant flowers form the backdrop for a living canvas, where a quaint streetside café once served as Van Gogh’s muse and a medieval fortress has evolved into a renowned wine estate.

The wonders of Provence await your discovery during this idyllic sojourn—in the bountiful vineyards of Burgundy with stately châteaux, in the enchanting quarters of Lyon and in the preservation of Provence’s extraordinary Roman ruins, where great history and beauty have been intertwined for centuries. Experience firsthand the remarkable achievements in fine art, cuisine, fashion, architecture, literature, cinema and joie de vivre that have made France so influential across the globe. C’est la belle vie!

Arles

This archetypal Provençal city is unmatched in its joie de vivre and is home to one of the most majestic collections of UNESCO World Heritage-designated Roman monuments. Visit the magnificently restored amphitheater, built in the first-century B.C. for 20,000-spectators and the 12th-century Église Saint-Trophime, a former cathedral known for its Last Judgment-themed portal, a fascinating example of Romanesque sculpture. Nearby on the Place du Forum, the restaurant in Van Gogh’s 1888 painting, The Café Terrace at Night, is still open to the public.

Avignon

Built on the banks of the Rhône, the ancient city of Avignon is a UNESCO World Heritage site and was the center of Western Christendom from 1309, when Pope Clement V moved the papal capital here until the Great Schism with Rome in 1378. Tour the grandiose Palais des Papes (papal palace), the largest château-fort built in Europe during the Gothic era and the primary testament to Avignon’s golden age.
At the river’s edge, see the remaining four arches of the Pont Saint-Bénézet (Pont d’Avignon), the only bridge built across the Rhône during the Middle Ages and an exceptional example of medieval fortifications.

Pont du Gard
Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Pont du Gard, an exquisitely built 2000-year-old Roman aqueduct that once supplied over nine million gallons of water daily to the city of Nîmes. This masterpiece of engineering was constructed of limestone cut to fit together seamlessly without mortar, using arches to support the weight.

Orange
Traverse the pastoral French countryside, passing lavender champé (fields) and stucco maison (houses). Admire the Roman city’s UNESCO World Heritage sites—visit the well-preserved ancient Roman theater, still hosting performances today, and see the Triumphal Arch, built in the late first century in testimony to Augustus Caesar and Roman imperial glory.

Vienne
Located at a scenic bend in the Rhône River, Vienne features a trove of architectural treasures. The Romans highly valued this strategically located town and endowed it with some of the finest Classical antiquities in France; amongst these are the nearly perfectly preserved Temple d’Auguste et de Livia, built in 25 B.C. in honor of Rome’s greatest emperor, and the Théâtre Romain, a beautifully restored amphitheater at the foot of Mont Pèlerin, seating up to 13,000 spectators, and still in use today. The town’s most notable medieval landmark, constructed between the 12th and 16th centuries, is the Romanesque-Gothic Cathédrale de Saint-Maurice. This evening, enjoy a specially arranged wine and Valrhona chocolate tasting with a well-known French sommelier on board the ship.

Lyon
A UNESCO World Heritage site, Lyon is a captivating city at the confluence of the Rhône and Saône Rivers, flowering with cherry blossoms and hyacinth and illuminated by the gleaming city lumière, which cast the riverfront incandescent. From lofty Fourvière Colline (Praying Hill), enjoy known to the ancient Romans as Arar, the Saône River meanders through inviting medieval villages and the French countryside.
views of the ornate 19th-century Basilique Notre-Dame-de-Fourvière. Walk the tree-lined streets of the restored Vieux (Old) Lyon, where well-preserved Gothic and Renaissance mansions attest to the wealth of Lyon's long-standing silk industry.

The first-century Pont du Gard aqueduct was built with 55,550 tons of soft limestone blocks.

Stroll through the ancient quarter of Saint-Jean and its unique traboules—narrow, covered pedestrian passageways.

Beaujolais

From the lovely vineyards of Beaujolais, the "land of the golden stones," France's youthful, fruity nouveau wines are cultivated. Located along the banks of the Saône River, this internationally acclaimed wine region has been known to produce more red wine than the Burgundy vineyards of Chablis, Côte d'Or, Côte Chalonnaise and Mâconnais combined.

In the fertile heart of Beaujolais, visit the 10th-century Château de Montmelas. Chételaine Delphine d'Harcourt will greet you upon arrival and guide your exclusive tour through her home.

Enjoy a private, specially arranged performance of fortepiano music by an internationally recognized pianist living in Burgundy, accompanied by a wine tasting and local canapés.

Beaune (Burgundy)

Amidst the idyllic Burgundy countryside, visit the picturesque medieval fortress Château de Rully, nestled among Chardonnay vineyards. Count Raoul de Ternay will guide your private tour of the estate, his family's ancestral home since the 12th century.

Beaune, founded in the fifth century B.C., is the longtime capital of Burgundy wines, located in the famous Côte d’Or département.

The 13th-century St Benezet was said to have been endowed with the strength to lay the stones of the Pont d'Avignon in the Rhône River with his own hands.
MS AMADEUS PROVENCE

The meticulous crafting of the deluxe AMADEUS PROVENCE sets new standards in design and technology and features the comforts of a refined and traditional hotel.

The 70 stylish Staterooms and Suites are among the most spacious of any European river ship (172 to 284 square feet). Suites include a private balcony, and select Staterooms feature a unique floor-to-ceiling window that lowers to French-balcony height at the touch of a button. Accommodations have two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, sitting area and private bathroom with shower.

The delightful restaurant offers scenic views through panoramic windows as well as continental cuisine featuring fresh, local ingredients. Daily meals include early-risers' coffee, buffet breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea, four-course dinner with complimentary wine and beer, and late-evening snack.

For your leisure time on board there is complimentary Wi-Fi, two bars, an open-air lounge, beauty salon, boutique, massage room, fitness studio, outdoor pool and Sun Deck. An elevator serves all passenger decks except the Sun Deck. There is no doctor on board.

The Amadeus Fleet has been awarded the “Green Certificate” of environmental preservation.

This historic city and its surrounding Burgundy terroirs, vineyards and cultural landscape comprise a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Famous for its colorful, intricate glazed-tile roof, the Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune once functioned as a hospital and today operates as a museum.

Tour the Renaissance-style Hôtel-Dieu, one of the best examples of 15th-century French architecture, famous for its colorful tiled roof and once a charitable hospital.
