Cruising aboard the Exclusively Chartered
Five-Star, Small Ship LE LAPÉROUSE

November 5 to 19, 2019

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends of Tufts,

Join us on this exclusive Southeast Asia journey featuring awe-inspiring natural beauty, sacred myths and honored traditions in Vietnam and Cambodia. Cruise along serene and storied shores to explore the captivating treasures of ancient pagodas, dynamic modern architecture and sampan-filled harbors. Further inland, discover the magnificent 12th-century temples and sculptures of Angkor, the capital of the Khmer Empire and one of the world's most important UNESCO World Heritage sites, located in the lush jungles of Cambodia. This exceptional itinerary encompasses the breadth of Vietnamese culture and the jungle-fringed ruins and magnificent temples of Angkor.

Along with alumni from our like-minded partner institutions Columbia, Dartmouth, Penn and USC on this departure, cruise for seven nights aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star LE LAPÉROUSE. Featuring only 92 Suites and Staterooms, this elegant small ship cruises into small ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

By exclusive arrangement, South Vietnamese-born Kim Phuc, a UNESCO Goodwill Ambassador for Peace; and award-winning, former news correspondent and media consultant, Jim Laurie will accompany us on this cruise. Hear a firsthand account from Phuc, who experienced a napalm attack as a child. Learn more about the fall of Saigon from Laurie, winner of two Emmy Awards and a Peabody Award for coverage of his time in Vietnam.

This unique program features four UNESCO World Heritage sites—beautiful Ha Long Bay, ancient Hoi An, the Forbidden Purple City in Huế and the famed Temple of Angkor. Experience dynamic Hanoi, Vietnam's culturally diverse capital showcasing a fusion of French and Asian heritage, and sail in a traditional Vietnamese junk past the limestone karst pillars and forested islands of majestic Ha Long Bay. Walk among the incredible fortifications of Huế's imperial Forbidden Purple City, mingle with local artisans in the lively riverfront market of Hoi An and admire its colorful and intricately carved Assembly Hall. Explore the spectacular contrast of old and new architecture in historic, French-Colonial Saigon.

The allure of ancient customs and colorful traditions await us on this comprehensive voyage, a great value that includes an excursion in every port and each day in Hanoi and Siem Reap; and all meals and alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages throughout our Five-Star cruise. Make your reservation now, while Early Booking Savings and space are still available. To make a reservation, call our Tufts representative at Gohagan & Company at 1-800-922-3088.

BANGKOK POST-CRUISE OPTION

Hanoi, Vietnam

The undeniable charm of this historic capital city resides in its shaded boulevards, bucolic parks and the city center—a time capsule of 1930s French-colonial architecture. The famous Ba Dinh Square is a testament to more recent history—see the imposing, granite Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum. The Beaux-Arts-style former French Governor's Residence is adjacent to the garden and modest cottage where Ho Chi Minh lived in the 1960s, and nearby, is the 11th-century One Pillar Pagoda, one of Vietnam's most iconic temples.

Cover: Cruise among the verdant limestone towers of idyllic Ha Long Bay, said to have been formed by dragons unleashed by the mythological Jade Emperor.

Built nine centuries ago, mystical Angkor Wat remains a pilgrimage site for Buddhist monks today.

Pass through the beautiful Hien Nhon Gate of Hue's monumental Imperial Citadel.

Tour the Temple of Literature where scholars have studied Confucianism since A.D. 1070. Visit the Hoa Lo Prison Museum, "Hanoi Hilton," which held captured pilots during the Vietnam War. Stroll the historic 36 Streets of the Old Quarter, named after the skilled craftspeople that worked here.

Ha Long Bay

Board a traditional Vietnamese junk for a private cruise through the natural wonders of Ha Long Bay, the "Bay of the Descending Dragon," a UNESCO World Heritage site characterized by its karst landscape. Amid over 3000 chalk and limestone islands, wooden-hulled junks with their signature orange sails glide along the bay's tranquil waters between limestone islands with wave-eroded caves, coves and grottoes. Walk among the tapering natural stalactites and stalagmites in the natural grottoes of Thien Cung, the Heavenly Palace Cave.

Da Nang

Encircled by the Marble Mountains and clear blue waters, coastal Da Nang is known for its exquisite Museum of Cham Sculpture, exhibiting the world's largest collection of Cham sandstone art and statues.

Hoi An

Prior to the 14th century, ancient Hoi An was the commercial capital of the Cham Empire and a strategic port for the lucrative spice trade.

This UNESCO World Heritage site is a well-preserved 15th- to 19th-century trading post with more than 800 period buildings still intact. Learn about the city's heritage at the Hoi An Museum of History and Culture housed inside the Quan Âm Pagoda. Visit the intricately carved grand temple of Phuc Kien Assembly Hall and its workshop of traditional handcrafts. Stroll the city's colorful riverside market and admire the prominent Japanese Covered Bridge, dating back to the 18th century.

Hue

The UNESCO World Heritage site of Hue, located on the banks of the Perfume River, was the Imperial City of the Nguyen kings from 1601 to 1945. Explore its Imperial Citadel and the massive ramparts and moat dating from the 18th and 19th centuries. Tour the Imperial Closure and the citadel within a citadel, the Forbidden Purple City, formerly reserved only for the royalty of the Nguyen Dynasty. Visit the 17th-century Thien Mu (Heavenly Lady) Pagoda, built to ensure the country's prosperity; and the tomb of Emperor Tu Duc, built and designed by the emperor himself during the Nguyen dynasty.

where women still wear the traditional áo dài, a silk tunic worn over pantaloons. See the neo-Romanesque-style Notre Dame Cathedral and the City Opera House, both a distinct reminder of the city's French Colonial history. Visit the 19th-century, European-style Central Post Office; the imposing Reunification Hall Palace, the former South Vietnamese presidential palace; and the War Remnants Museum, which offers a Vietnamese perspective on the Vietnam War. Explore the Ben Thanh Market, an authentic symbol of Saigon, where merchants offer aromatic spiced cuisine, traditional Chinese medicines and handcrafted wares and textiles.

Outside Saigon, explore the Cu Chi Tunnels, an underground complex used by the Viet Cong stretching from Saigon to the Cambodian border.

Siem Reap, Cambodia, for Angkor

The UNESCO World Heritage site of Angkor was the capital of the Khmer Kingdom, one of the world's most important archaeological sites located in the lush jungles of northern Cambodia.

Tour the Temple of Angkor Wat, near the vibrant city of Siem Reap, built in the 12th century by King Suryavarman II to honor the Hindu god Vishnu. Angkor Wat, the largest religious structure in the world, stands in testament to the centuries-long grandeur of the prosperous Khmer empire.

Explore Hanoi's vibrant city center on foot, by bicycle or by the city's widespread rickshaws.

Visit Banteay Srei, the Citadel of Women, considered the jewel of Khmer art. Built in the 10th century from rose-pink sandstone, the temple is believed to be built by women, based on the intricacy of the elaborate carvings that adorn its peaked buildings.

On the banks of the Siem Reap River, the monumental walled city of Angkor Thom was the last capital of the Khmer Empire. See the towers of its Bayon Temple, with approximately 200 stone faces and bas-relief sculptures depicting historical scenes from everyday life of the Angkorian Khmer; interior artwork depicts scenes from Hindu mythology.

Explore the area surrounding the complex, including the ruins of the 11th-century Baphuon mountain temple and the intricately carved Terrace of the Elephants, the Terrace of the Leper King and the atmospheric Royal Palace.

Visit Ta Prohm, the fascinating 12th-century Buddhist temple left largely untouched in the jungle. With fig, banyan and kapok trees growing out of the ruins, the dynamic lifecycle between nature and humanity provides the basis for Ta Prohm's "lost city" legendary tales.

Tour the main workshop of the Artisans Angkor, which provides training for thousands of Cambodians to perpetuate the creation of their traditional, cultural handcrafts.

Admire the Lai Vien Kieu (Lady of the Pagoda) Bridge built to link Hoi An's Chinese and Japanese quarters.

Please Note: Occasionally issues arise in various regions of the world that lead some individuals and groups to call for travel boycotts or other forms of political action. We leave it to our travelers to stay informed and make personal judgements about travel.

We enthusiastically welcome those who choose to travel alone. To minimize the single supplement cost, we will respond to requests for a room share. We will also make every effort to include each participant into the life of the group.

INSURANCE: As a Tufts traveler, up to $500,000 coverage for emergency assistance and evacuation service is included in your Travel-Learn journey. In addition, Tufts has arranged with an insurance provider to offer a comprehensive Traveler's Protection Plan. We strongly recommend purchase of this plan, which provides coverage for trip cancellation, interruption and/or delay, baggage loss, theft, damage or delay, and other travel-related contingencies. Information on this coverage is sent by Tufts with your trip confirmation letter.
