Cruising aboard the Exclusively Chartered Five-Star, Small Ship Le Lapérouse

November 5 to 19, 2019
Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends of Tufts,

Join us on this exclusive Southeast Asia journey featuring awe-inspiring natural beauty, sacred myths and honored traditions in Vietnam and Cambodia. Cruise along serene and storied shores to explore the captivating treasures of ancient pagodas, dynamic modern architecture and sampan-filled harbors. Further inland, discover the magnificent 12th-century temples and sculptures of Angkor, the capital of the Khmer Empire and one of the world's most important UNESCO World Heritage sites, located in the lush jungles of Cambodia. This exceptional itinerary encompasses the breadth of Vietnamese culture and the jungle-fringed ruins and magnificent temples of Angkor.

Along with alumni from our like-minded partner institutions Columbia, Dartmouth, Penn and USC on this departure, cruise for seven nights aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star Le LAPÉROUSE. Featuring only 92 Suites and Staterooms, this elegant small ship cruises into small ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

By exclusive arrangement, South Vietnamese-born Kim Phuc, a UNESCO Goodwill Ambassador for Peace; and award-winning, former news correspondent and media consultant, Jim Laurie will accompany us on this cruise. Hear a firsthand account from Phuc, who experienced a napalm attack as a child. Learn more about the fall of Saigon from Laurie, winner of two Emmy Awards and a Peabody Award for coverage of his time in Vietnam.

This unique program features four UNESCO World Heritage sites—beautiful Ha Long Bay, ancient Hộ An, the Forbidden Purple City in Hué and the famed Temple of Angkor. Experience dynamic Hanoi, Vietnam's culturally diverse capital showcasing a fusion of French and Asian heritage, and sail in a traditional Vietnamese junk past the limestone karst pillars and forested islands of majestic Ha Long Bay. Walk among the incredible fortifications of Hué's imperial Forbidden Purple City, mingle with local artisans in the lively riverfront market of Hội An and admire its colorful and intricately carved Assembly Hall. Explore the spectacular contrast of old and new architecture in historic, French-Colonial Saigon.

The allure of ancient customs and colorful traditions await us on this comprehensive voyage, a great value that includes an excursion in every port and each day in Hanoi and Siem Reap; and all meals and alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages throughout our Five-Star cruise. Make your reservation now, while Early Booking Savings and space are still available. To make a reservation, call our Tufts representative at Gohagan & Company at 1-800-922-3088.

Cheers!

Day BANGKOK Post-Cruise Option

Hanoi, Vietnam
The undeniable charm of this historic capital city resides in its shaded boulevards, bucolic parks and the city center—a time capsule of 1930s French-colonial architecture. The famous Ba Dinh Square is a testament to more recent history—see the imposing, granite Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum. The Beaux-Arts-style former French Governor's Residence is adjacent to the garden and modest cottage where Ho Chi Minh lived in the 1960s, and nearby, is the 11th-century One Pillar Pagoda, one of Vietnam's most iconic temples.

Cover: Cruise among the verdant limestone towers of idyllic Ha Long Bay, said to have been formed by dragons unleashed by the mythological Jade Emperor.

Built nine centuries ago, mystical Angkor Wat remains a pilgrimage site for Buddhist monks today.
Tour the Temple of Literature where scholars have studied Confucianism since A.D. 1070. Visit the Hoa Lo Prison Museum, “Hanoi Hilton,” which held captured pilots during the Vietnam War. Stroll the historic 36 Streets of the Old Quarter, named after the skilled craftspeople that worked here.

Ha Long Bay
Board a traditional Vietnamese junk for a private cruise through the natural wonders of Ha Long Bay, the “Bay of the Descending Dragon,” a UNESCO World Heritage site characterized by its karst landscape. Amid over 3000chalk and limestone islands, wooden-hulled junks with their signature orange sails glide along the bay's tranquil waters between limestone islands with wave-eroded caves, coves and grottoes. Walk among the tapering natural stalactites and stalagmites in the natural grottoes of Thien Cung, the Heavenly Palace Cave.

Da Nang
Encircled by the Marble Mountains and clear blue waters, coastal Da Nang is known for its exquisite Museum of Cham Sculpture, exhibiting the world's largest collection of Cham sandstone art and statues.

Hội An
Prior to the 14th century, ancient Hội An was the commercial capital of the Cham Empire and a strategic port for the lucrative spice trade.

Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City)
Saigon has remained a vibrant convergence of French romance and Vietnamese flair,

Featured Guest Speakers

Kim Phuc
A UNESCO Goodwill Ambassador for Peace, Kim Phuc is the author of Fire Road, an inspirational story of her unexpected survival and unshakeable, life-altering faith. Phuc travels to numerous global events every year to share her wartime experience as a child. She has received numerous awards and recognitions for her commitment to global peace and reconciliation, and has received six honorary Doctorates for her work supporting child victims of war around the world, inspiring the nonprofit organization, KIM Foundation International.

Jim Laurie
A distinguished former TV news correspondent, Jim Laurie has witnessed many defining moments in Asia’s history. He was the only American network correspondent to witness the fall of Saigon to the North Vietnamese. He currently is a media consultant and is the recipient of a Peabody Award, two Emmy Awards and an Amnesty International Award and has co-produced, written and directed several television documentaries including Vietnam: Giai phong 25 Years Later (2000).
where women still wear the traditional áo dài, a silk tunic worn over pantaloons. See the neo-Romanesque-style Notre Dame Cathedral and the City Opera House, both a distinct reminder of the city’s French Colonial history. Visit the 19th-century, European-style Central Post Office; the imposing Reunification Hall Palace, the former South Vietnamese presidential palace; and the War Remnants Museum, which offers a Vietnamese perspective on the Vietnam War. Explore the Ben Thanh Market, an authentic symbol of Saigon, where merchants offer aromatic spiced cuisine, traditional Chinese medicines and handcrafted wares and textiles.

Outside Saigon, explore the Cu Chi Tunnels, an underground complex used by the Viet Cong stretching from Saigon to the Cambodian border.

Siem Reap, Cambodia, for Angkor

The UNESCO World Heritage site of Angkor was the capital of the Khmer Kingdom, one of the world’s most important archaeological sites located in the lush jungles of northern Cambodia.

Tour the Temple of Angkor Wat, near the vibrant city of Siem Reap, built in the 12th century by King Suryavarman II to honor the Hindu god Vishnu. Angkor Wat, the largest religious structure in the world, stands in testament to the centuries-long grandeur of the prosperous Khmer empire.

Visit Banteay Srei, the Citadel of Women, considered the jewel of Khmer art. Built in the 10th century from rose-pink sandstone, the temple is believed to be built by women, based on the intricacy of the elaborate carvings that adorn its peaked buildings. On the banks of the Siem Reap River, the monumental walled city of Angkor Thom was the last capital of the Khmer Empire. See the towers of its Bayon Temple, with approximately 200 stone faces and bas-relief sculptures depicting historical scenes from everyday life of the Angkorian Khmer; interior artwork depicts scenes from Hindu mythology.

Explore the area surrounding the complex, including the ruins of the 11th-century Baphuon mountain temple and the intricately carved Terrace of the Elephants, the Terrace of the Leper King and the atmospheric Royal Palace.

Visit Ta Prohm, the fascinating 12th-century Buddhist temple left largely untouched in the jungle. With fig, banyan and kapok trees growing out of the ruins, the dynamic lifecycle between nature and humanity provides the basis for Ta Prohm’s “lost city” legendary tales.

Tour the main workshop of the Artisans Angkor, which provides training for thousands of Cambodians to perpetuate the creation of their traditional, cultural handcrafts.

Explore Hanoi’s vibrant city center on foot, by bicycle or by the city’s widespread rickshaws.

Admire the Lai Vien Kieu (Lady of the Pagoda) Bridge built to link Hội An’s Chinese and Japanese quarters.

View Saigon’s striking, well-preserved, neoclassical Central Post Office opened in 1891 and Vietnam’s largest post office.

See Da Nang’s excellent collection at the Museum of Cham Sculpture.
Blue Eye – World’s First Multisensory, Underwater Observation Lounge

Introducing the extraordinary Blue Eye, the world’s first multisensory, underwater Observation Lounge. View the beauty of marine life through the large, subaquatic windows and integrated digital screens providing live images from underwater cameras, and enjoy the sensory experience of listening to the ocean’s unique underwater universe in the comfort of the exclusive Blue Eye lounge.*

Luxury Small Ship, Innovative Design

Le Lapérouse, launched in 2018, ushers in a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury for an unparalleled cruising experience. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships and where authentic cultural experiences and majestic scenery await you.

Life on Board

Enjoy sweeping views from the lounges, which open to the outdoors, and lectures, cultural performances or film screenings in the state-of-the-art theater. Relax in the spa and sauna or the Sun Deck’s infinity-style swimming pool. There is a beauty salon, fitness room and there are three elevators. Complimentary Wi-Fi is available throughout the ship.

92 Elegant Suites and Staterooms, 100% with Private Balconies

Each Five-Star Stateroom and Suite (up to 484 square feet) features a private balcony. Grand Deluxe Suites have a bay window and spacious private terrace. Accommodations offer two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, private bathrooms with a shower and luxurious hotel-style amenities.

Respect for the Environment

A new addition to the Ponant “Clean Ship” fleet, an important distinction among ocean-cruising vessels, Le Lapérouse is energy efficient and eco-friendly, protecting fragile marine ecosystems while providing a safe and comfortable voyage.

Chic and Casual Dining

Dine indoors or alfresco on international and regional cuisine served in the stylish, spacious indoor-outdoor restaurant, at the casual pool deck grill or from 24-hour room service. Daily meals include continental and buffet breakfasts, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner.

World-Class Service

The highly trained, English-speaking crew are personable and attentive, and the ship has a medical center staffed with a doctor and nurse.
