Since 2010, Jumbos have won 10 national championships—including three each for our softball, men’s lacrosse, and men’s soccer teams—and have eight top-10 finishes in the Learfield IMG College Directors’ Cup.

Tufts is home to the Allen Discovery Center, one of just four centers in the country funded by a grant from Microsoft co-founder Paul G. Allen to support research at the frontier of the life sciences.

Tufts is ranked 11th by Nature Index, placing the school among the most influential and innovative institutions in the world.

The Jonathan M. Tisch College of Civic Life is a national leader in civic education and has been called “the most ambitious attempt by any research university to make public service part of its core academic mission.”

Tufts Entrepreneurship Center (TEC) offers the largest minor for undergraduates, with courses taught by actual entrepreneurs, investors, and experts who bring decades of industry and entrepreneurship experience to the classroom. TEC incubates student-led startups through the Tufts Venture Lab, featuring co-working space on campus and the Tufts Summer Accelerator, which offers coaching and support from “lean startup” experts, alumni, and peers. TEC annually hosts 25+ events, such as the Founders’ Workshops, Venture Roadshows, and competitions for cash and in-kind prizes—including the Ideas Competition, Tufts $100k New Ventures Competition, and Monte Prize.

Advice from current parents

We asked some of our current parents to share their advice about what to expect and how to prepare for the transition to Tufts.

“There are a lot of moving parts to the move-in and orientation process, bookmark go.tufts.edu/firstyear and check back often, as dates and schedules get finalized throughout the spring and summer. Additionally, the Academic Calendar page has important dates all in one place that we visit regularly.”
- Arts & Sciences, 2022 parent

“Every month we receive an electronic Parent Newsletter from Student Life that is filled with lots of information on different programs, activities, and resources at Tufts. We find it very useful and definitely worth reading.”
- Arts & Sciences, 2021 parent

“If possible, attend the Matriculation Ceremony (which is the official start of regular orientation on Wednesday, August 28). It’s a day filled with emotions as you have the opportunity to see your child with their class for the first time and officially send them off to college! Bring tissues!”
- Engineering, 2022 parent

“We loved the Facebook Live programming that Tufts did for new families last summer- Student Life regularly streamed programming that included room walk-throughs, Q&A, and other updates. I felt well-informed, which eliminated some jitters!”
- Engineering, 2022 parent

“When we have had questions about anything about advising, tuition payments, housing etc, we’ve found the parents page on the student life website extremely helpful. It is go.tufts.edu/parents. We’ve found answers there much faster than from our child.”
- Arts & Sciences, 2020 parent

“We love attending Parents and Family Weekend. It’s a festive weekend on campus and a fantastic opportunity to meet your Jumbo’s new friends and their families, hear from faculty, and enjoy campus in the fall. A real don’t miss!”
- Engineering, 2021 parent

“Try to relax and remember that it will all work out in the end! That’s hard to keep in mind as the hectic pace of packing and planning can seem a bit much, but your child is going to have a fantastic experience. We love Tufts!”

GO.TUFTS.EDU/CAREERCENTER
The Tufts Financial Network (TFN) engages more than 2,500 Tufts alumni, parents and friends worldwide who work in the area of financial services, including investment and commercial banking, hedge funds, asset management, trading, corporate finance, private equity, venture capital, real estate and other related fields.

TFN leverages the university's significant intellectual resources and convening power to offer tailored programs in key financial centers around the world. Since its establishment in 2008, speakers have included Jamie Dimon, A78, CEO of JPMorgan Chase; Jeff Kindler, A77, A11P, former CEO of Pfizer; Ellen Kullman, E78, A12P, former Chair and CEO of DuPont; Jonathan Tisch, A76, Chair and CEO of Loews Hotels; and many other distinguished professionals from the fields of finance, business and real estate.

TFN also provides opportunities for members to assist Tufts students pursuing careers in finance. For example, the Women's Mentorship Program connects current female students with alumnae volunteers in the financial services sector. Each fall, Tufts also hosts the annual Finance Career Forum, which brings upwards of 30 alumni volunteers to the Medford Campus for presentations and to offer guidance to nearly 200 student attendees.

TFN members are also the driving force behind the Tufts Finance Initiative (TFI), a program designed to strengthen finance education through the Tufts Economics Department. TFI has created additional opportunities for summer internships and full-time employment for students. The initiative was also a driving force behind the establishment of an undergraduate Minor in Finance in the School of Arts and Sciences.

If you are currently working in the financial services industry and interested in participating in future TFN activities, please fill out the parent information form included in this packet. You will be added to the TFN mailing list and receive invitations to upcoming events.
