Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends of Tufts,

We hope you are eagerly anticipating this once-in-a-lifetime trip and experience that will bring you closer to the world that leads some groups and individuals to call for travel boycotts or other forms of political action. We leave it to our travel experts to manage all the logistics, allowing you to relax and simply soak up the ambience.

Please Note: From time to time issues arise in various regions of current events. The breadth of their knowledge deepens your appreciation for the region and its heritage.

in the rhythm of life in southern Africa, adding another memorable insider perspective and commentary. This high-caliber professional makes you feel safe and important by gain from expert guides and lecturers, who call this area home.

The other important characters in this story are the guides, whose role is to reveal the South African treasure to the world, and local people, who are involved in projects at Robben Island.

The incomparable value of your journey lies in the personalized experience of the landscape, its culture, and its people. The peninsula is a part of the Cape Floral Region, described the Cape of Good Hope as the “fairest corner on earth” by Sir Francis Drake.

Surround yourself in classic luxury during a three-night journey on the Rovos Rail. The train is adorned in the splendor of the late Victorian and Edwardian era, all housed in an air-conditioned Pullman Suite with joined twin beds or a double bed. Each suite features a lounge area. Each air-conditioned suite features a selection of excellent South African wines. A three-course meal is included with a choice of twin or double beds and a private bathroom. Each suite has a viewing area so passengers dress for the occasion. Expertly dressed waiters serve passengers aboard the train, including in diamonds, pearls, and black tie. The service is impeccable, and the suites are decorated in late Victorian and Edwardian style. Spend your days in the observation car or mingle with your fellow passengers.
