ST. PETERSBURG • MOSCOW

Cruising aboard the
Deluxe VOLGA DREAM
August 26 to September 6, 2018
Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends of Tufts,

Experience the timeless pageantry and traditional folkways of Russia, revealed along the scenic rivers, lakes and canals that link St. Petersburg with Moscow. Between these cultural capitals lies a countryside seemingly untouched by the modern age. Golden-domed churches rise from the early morning mist, wooden villages and farms dot the landscape, and the light of lingering summer evenings gives an otherworldly aura to the banks of Russia’s inland waterways.

Along with alumni from our like-minded partner institutions on this departure, cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe Volga Dream. The Volga Dream and its highly trained staff ensure you will enjoy an intimate atmosphere, personalized service and highly praised continental cuisine throughout your cruise.

Explore the preeminent artistic, historical and architectural treasures of classical Russian culture and several “Golden Ring” cities. Visit splendid St. Petersburg—Russia’s “window on the West” and its cultural capital—the majestic legacy of the most visionary of tsars, Peter the Great. Then, cruise through the heart of Russia, where daily life unfolds at the measured pace it has kept for generations and where villagers still dwell in traditional wooden cottages and preserve the time-honored customs of their ancestors, while spectacular onion-domed churches and fortified monasteries testify to the abiding faith of the Russian people. Conclude with one night in the fabled city of Moscow, the political and commercial capital of the world’s largest country.

This unique travel program features the best ship in Russia and a thoughtfully crafted, comprehensive itinerary with opportunities to experience nine UNESCO World Heritage sites. This popular program is a great value and is sure to sell out quickly, so reserve your space today while Early Booking Savings are still available!

Russia’s Cultural Capitals

Among the world’s prodigious capitals of culture, the two extraordinary Russian cities of St. Petersburg and Moscow are held in the highest regard.

The very creation of St. Petersburg was a cultural statement by Peter the Great, whose vision was to “open a window on the West” to rival Europe’s greatest cities. This epicenter of art and architecture is highlighted during a specially reserved early entrance and tour of the UNESCO World Heritage-designated State Hermitage Museum, allowing you to view the incomparable treasures of Catherine the Great’s spectacular art collections. True to Peter the Great’s vision, St. Petersburg, the artistic, literary and musical center of Russia, has engendered universally revered ballets, novels and classical compositions.

An important center of trade long before Ivan the Terrible declared it Russia’s capital in 1547, Moscow is a medieval city in its layout and original architecture. Today, this sophisticated city is a showcase of four UNESCO World Heritage sites and continues to be the heart of Russian finance, commerce, education and research. Here, you will visit the renowned Kremlin Territory and magisterial Red Square to see 16th-century St. Basil’s Cathedral, experiencing firsthand one of the most dynamic cities in the world.
