DISCOVERY

Tuscan Countryside. Experience the Val d’Orcia, a landscape of red poppies, swaying cypress, olive groves and bucolic farmsteads. Tour a family-owned winery, and delight in sampling decadent local vintages and cheeses made in the Brunello di Montalcino region.

Cortona and its Environs. Cortona is tucked into the hills of the Arezzo province. Examine the history of this typically Tuscan town and its relationship to greater Tuscany and Italy as a whole.

Renaissance Art. Learn how the increased awareness of nature, the revival of classical learning and the more individualistic view of humanity shaped the art of the Renaissance.

Contemporary Italy. Engage in a lecture about Italian society, life in Campania, the current political and economic situation in Italy and the country’s future challenges.

Tuscan Countryside.

Taste of Florence. Explore the World Heritage site of Florence, and discover how the city’s cachet of creative genius left it laden with fine art and architecture. Walk by the Old Palace and Ponte Vecchio. Admire the intricate marble façade of the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore, and see the vast Piazza della Signoria, the center of the city’s political life.

Siena. A trove of Gothic architecture, cathedrals and museums awaits in Siena. Visit the shell-shaped Piazza del Campo, and stroll by the Torre del Mangia, Piazza Chapel and Civic Museum. Then gaze at fascinating works of art and sculpture in the city’s remarkable Duomo, a treasure of Romanesque-Gothic architecture.

Montepulciano. Travel to the ancient Etruscan city of Montepulciano. En route, stop to visit the Church of the Madonna di San Biagio. Consecrated by Pope Clement VII in 1529, the church features large arches and bell towers. During free time in Montepulciano, stroll down the medieval Via del Corso past wine and cheese shops.

Etruscan Legacy. Immerse yourself in Etruscan history at the Praetorian Palace and the Museum of the Etruscan Academy. Inside the museum, admire archaeological relics and Etruscan, Greek, Roman and Egyptian art.

Tuscan Cooking. The flavors of Tuscany are created with fresh, simple ingredients. Explore the secrets of this sensational cuisine during a cooking demonstration with a local chef. Then savor the culinary delights for lunch.
